

Alan Raymond

SENIOR ADVISOR, TVA ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Alan Raymond is TVA Economic Development's Senior Advisor. His responsibilities include designing programs and regional initiatives and working with prospects and existing industries throughout TVA's seven-state region.

Before assuming his current position, Raymond served as a TVA target market specialist, focusing on the solar and nuclear energy industries. In that capacity he recruited major manufacturing investments to the Valley and managed site selection projects.

Raymond earned bachelor's and master's degrees in foreign languages from Mississippi State University. His undergraduate work included special emphasis on international business. After graduation, he worked for five years as international sales manager for an automotive parts manufacturer. Before joining TVA, he worked in international trade development and industrial recruitment for the State of Mississippi.

Raymond and his wife, Michele, have three children and live in Nashville.
